

VERLETTA WHITE
INTERIM SUPERINTENDENT
BALTIMORE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS, MD

Dynamic, deeply trusted, and homegrown, Baltimore County Public Schools Interim Superintendent Ms. Verletta White leads the 25th largest school system in the nation with a growing student enrollment of more than 114,000 diverse students, and more than 18,500 employees including 9,000 teachers.

Ms. White has established a focus on disciplinary literacy across all subject areas as well as an emphasis on positive, safe, and healthy school climates, in order to support effective teaching and learning in every classroom.

Ms. White has risen through the ranks in BCPS, serving as chief academic officer; assistant superintendent for elementary schools; area assistant superintendent for the Northeast Area; and executive director of professional development. Ms. White began her teaching career in 1992, as an elementary school teacher in Baltimore City, and transitioned to a teaching position in Baltimore County in 1995.

Ms. White holds a bachelor of science degree in education from Towson University, a master of arts degree in leadership in teaching from the College of Notre Dame in Maryland, and is currently a doctoral candidate in urban educational leadership at Morgan State University.